

Air Dryers

Modern trucks are more complex than ever, relying on systems that demand increasing amounts of clean, dry air. With the rise of automated manual transmissions and advanced safety technologies, the need to supply air free of contaminants has become more critical than ever to protect your commercial vehicles.

Bendix® PuraGuard® oil coalescing cartridges are engineered to help keep your systems running and deliver optimum up-time for your vehicles.

Note: If a Bendix® PuraGuard® oil coalescing cartridge is being replaced, it must be replaced with a like unit.
